March 3, 2008 - The Frog Prince

When a princess drops her ball into a well, a noble frog retrieves it in exchange for her promise of friendship. The princess breaks her promise, and must face the music in this colorful funny, faithful adaptation of the classic folk story first recorded by the Brothers Grimm.

Performances 9:45 & 11:45am

March 17, 2008 - Peter & the Wolf

The appeal of this particular story resides in the many levels of interest that may be explored. First, there is the music. A different instrument and melody represents each character. These sounds and themes introduced become an excellent link to understanding and appreciating classical and other music. Then, there is the story - a true adventure. Finally there is all that the story represents, love, friendship and caring, greed, arrogance and prejudice. There is innocence and wisdom, youth and maturity, conflict resolution, moral development and the beauty of the natural order of life.

Performances 9:45 & 11:45am

April 17, 2008 - Once Upon A Time

This enchanting collection of classical tales includes: "Little Red Riding Hood", "The Emperor's New Clothes", "The Princess & the Pea", and "All's Well That Ends Well", in a delightful and entertaining musical production.

Performances 9:45 & 11:45am

May 7, 2008 - Cuentos Del Arbol

This is a delightful bi-lingual musical drawn from Spanish and Latin American folklore. The play is designed to bring Spanish to "life" for students studying the language; and to make theatre accessible for students, parents and grandparents for whom English is a second language. Because the play is presented in a bi-lingual format, it provides literacy enhancement in both language and the arts. The stories within the show offer pride in the Spanish culture.

Performances 9:45 & 11:45am
